Raschid, the alleged leper, who has had his oan way in everything, and who is not molested by any one after he acquaints the populars of his condition, has not yet reached Richmond. He may have passed through the city, but he certainly hasn't isnised. The police last night had heard nothing of him. Dr. Levy, of the Health Department, knew northing of the man's whereabouts. He may have left West Viridua-and the people there ain't raising any great disturbance about his leaving—but he hasn't set his foot on Richmond soll as yet, He may come here to-day, and, if he does, he will be the object of great integes, Physicicus where say that the diagram of the Board of Directors.
